Numb. 6392

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 21. 1743.

... last arriv'd a Mail from France, another from Holland, and two from Flanders.

... going Paper is an exact Translation of the Mani... lately publiſhed by Don Theodore, upon his Return to the Island of Corſica, where he was receiv'd with the... Acclamations of the People.

THEODORUS the Firſt, by the Grace of God King of Corſica, and Grand Maſter of the Military Order of Redemption.

Having, Thanks be to Providence, the Conſolation ſo ardently deſir'd, of finding ourſelves in the Midſt of our faithful Subjects in our own ..., maugre the many Loſſes, Treaſons, Perſe... we have ſuffer'd, and in Spite of the Methods ... where purſu'd to diſſuade us, interrupt, or even ... prevent our Return with the neceſſary Suc... infamous and monſtrous Methods into which ... not only our Enemy, and their Inſtruments, but ... perjur'd and perfidious Chiefs, who, from par... Views, for diabolical Ends, and betray'd by chi... Ideas, have moſt unworthily deſerted us, and ...'d our Kingdom and faithful Subjects, to the ... Tyranny of the Genoeſe, and had farther the ... Temerity to employ all Sorts of Frauds, in ... to ſeduce a great Number of their ſimple and ... Countrymen, and ingage them ſhamefully ... their Backs on their unhappy Country in her ... Diſtreſs, and to ſerve the Allies of the Ge...

...ing, on the other Hand, full Confidence, and even ... Certainty, that all our Subjects, convinc'd by ... Miſchiefs they have ſuffer'd, and exceſſive Grie... they have felt during our Abſence, have through... apprehended the Methods uſed to impoſe upon them; ... they have called to Mind the ſolemn and inviola... Oath of Obedience and Fidelity which they have ... to us, and, in conſequence thereof, muſt know ...ſelves oblig'd before God and Man, to ſubmit to ... Royal Will, and to labour with a ſincere Zeal, and ...ruptible Fidelity, to procure the Welfare of us, ... thoſe of our Kingdom.

... Teſtimony therefore of our Royal and Paternal ...ency, we grant to all our Subjects, by theſe Pre..., a general Pardon, for whatever they may have ... contrary to their Oath of Allegiance, injurious to ... Royal Right, or againſt the publick Welfare of our ...gdom. Excluding however, after mature Delibera..., and declaring for ever excluded from this our gra... Pardon, the infamous Aſſaſſins of our late moſt ... General Count Simon Tubiani, of happy Memory, ...ſo the perjur'd Felons and Traitors Hyacinth de ..., the Canon Eraſmus Orticoni, the Prieſt Grego... Salvini, declaring them not only baniſh'd for ever ... of our Kingdom, but commanding alſo that all ... Effects, of whatever Kind, be confiſcated, in or... to their being divided, by way of Recompence, ...ong the Widows and Children of our faithful Sub... who have ſacr... their Lives with ſo much Zeal ... the Defence of our Sovereign Rights, and of their ... Country.

... being farther our Will and Pleaſure, that this our ...lamation and Commandment ſhould ſerve as a defi... Sentence, and have all the Force and Vigour ne... againſt the ſaid perfidious Enemies of the Com...wealth, to cover them with Shame, and to ſtamp ...rnal Infamy on their Names, we this Day once for ..., and definitively, declare them guilty of High Trea..., and as Traitors condemn them to the moſt igno...minious Death, in caſe they have the Temerity to ſet ... foot again in our Kingdom. And to ſtrengthen fur... this our moſt juſt Sentence, we forbid, under pain ... Death without Remiſſion, and of Confiſcation of ... their Eſtates, all and every of our Subjects, of what ...ver, Rank, or Condition ſoever they be, to have any ...Correſpondence whatſoever, direct or indirect, with ... ſaid Felons Hyacinth de Paolis, Eraſmus Orticoni, ... Gregorio Salvini, or with any of their Adherents, ... whoſe Artifices many have been induced to abandon ... Royal Service, and their Country, in its greateſt ...treſs, and this to the no ſmall Benefit of our Ene... the Genoeſe, and to receive the Pay of France, ...pain, and Naples. To all theſe however, as Perſons ...born'd and betray'd, we of ſpecial Grace grant our ... Pardon, but upon this preciſe Condition, and not other... wiſe, that they return to our Obedience, and into our Kingdom, and this within the Time and Space peremptory of ſix Weeks for ſuch as are in Italy, in either Spaniſh or Neapolitan Service, and in the Space of three Months for ſuch as are actually in France, or Spain; and in caſe they ſhall not return within that Time, we will and declare definitively, and once for all, that they be, and remain perpetually baniſh'd out of our Kingdom, and their Goods confiſcated to the Benefit of the Widows and Orphans of our faithful and well-affected Subjects.

'As to ſuch as are in the Service of the Duke of Lorrain, Grand Duke of Tuſcany, our Will is, that they continue to ſerve his Royal Highneſs with the ſame Zeal and Fidelity which they owe to ourſelves or our Repreſentatives; and this ſo long as his Royal Highneſs ſhall make uſe of their Service, and till he gives them Permiſſion to return into their own Country.

'And in order to convince every Body that this is our invariable Sentiment, we hereby declare to all our loving Subjects, that it is our unalterable Reſolution, as it is and ſhall always be, to aſſiſt and ſupport with the Force of our faithful Subjects, the juſt Rights of her Majeſty the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, as univerſal Heireſs of all the Kingdoms and States devolving by the Death, or in his Life-time poſſeſſed by his late Imperial Majeſty of glorious and immortal Memory; as alſo, as in a Common Cauſe, to employ all the Forces GOD has given Us, to aid the Duke of Lorrain and Grand Duke of Tuſcany, for the Defence and Preſervation of his Dominions.

'With reſpect to ſuch of our Subjects as are in the Service of the Pope, or of the moſt Serene State of Venice, we grant the former One, and the latter Three Months to procure their Diſcharge; and on their Application to Us, we promiſe to recompenſe every Man's Abilities.

'In fine, with reſpect to ſuch as perſiſt in the ſcandalous Service of the Genoeſe, we hold them for baniſhed and exiled Perſons to Perpetuity, out of our Kingdom, with Confiſcation of all their Goods, if within the Space of twenty-four Hours ſuch as are within the Compaſs of our Kingdom, and within a Week all ſuch as are in the Territory of Genoa, do not abandon the Service of the Genoeſe, our common Enemies, to preſent themſelves before us, and inroll them among our faithful Subjects; aſſuring them, that on their ready and willing Obedience and Fidelity, they ſhall be recompenſed in proportion to their Deſerts.

'In conſequence of our gracious Condeſcenſion, and of our General Pardon, out of which we except only the Aſſaſſins and Traitors expreſsly mentioned, we ſteadfaſtly hope that all our faithful Subjects will concur with us, in the laudable Enterprize of uniting and re-aſſembling all ſuch as are diſperſed and live exiled from their Country; that ſo being henceforward united by the Bonds of Concord, we may happily enter into, and ſucceſsfully execute, the noble Reſolution of driving the common Enemy out of the Kingdom.

'And to the End that no Perſon may pretend Ignorance of the Contents of this our Edict, and of our Pleaſure, we direct and command all the Chieftans in the ſeveral Pieves, or Diſtricts, that they immediately cauſe this our Edict to be publiſhed, that it may come to the Notice of all ſuch of our Subjects as are out of the Kingdom; and we alſo direct they ſhould keep an authentick Copy of it by them, in order to regulate their own Conduct thereby. For ſuch is our Royal Pleaſure, and to this End we have ſigned it with our Hand, and ſealed it with our Broad Seal,'

Given at Balagna, in Sainta Reparata, Jan. 30, 1743. and in the Seventh Year of our Reign, which GOD render happy and exalted.

Petersburgh, Feb. 2. It is ſaid, that the detaining the Prince and Princeſs of Brunſwick at Dunemonde, is only in order to the executing the Renunciations which it is ſtipulated they ſhall make, by the Treaties to which they are to owe their Liberties. The Differences between our Court and the Shah Nadir appear now in a new Light. The Dageſthan Tartars are inclined to put themſelves under our Protection, which has given great Umbrage to that Monarch. But as they are a very brave People, and are able to bring 65,000 Men into the Field, it is believed we ſhall accept their Propoſals, and truſt the Protection of our Frontiers to them and 20,000 regular Troops. In caſe the Swedes do not embrace our Terms, the Duke of Holſtein is to go and take Homage of the States of Finland; and in caſe of the Election of the Duke of Deux Ponts, will continue the War.

Stockholm, Feb. 10. Orders are iſſued for Regiſtring the Eſtates and Effects of Count Lowenhaupt, whence his Affairs are thought in a bad Way. The Secret Committee have ſign'd a kind of Engagement not to diſcloſe what comes to their Knowledge. The War ſeems to be as likely to go on as ever. We cannot loſe, and the Ruſſians will not part with Finland. A Committee is appointed to confer with M. Berkentin, and it appears the Daniſh Party is become very numerous. His Majeſty has often declar'd, that all his Hopes were placed in the Mediation of the Court of Great Britain, and her Intereſt with that of Ruſſia.

Copenhagen, Feb. 12. The Conferences at Court are more frequent than ever, and, as we apprehend, are moſtly about the Affairs of Sweden, which ſeem to engroſs all our Attention. The Preparations for a vigorous Campaign go on by Land and Sea with incredible Diligence. However, there is ſomething very myſterious in this, as well as in the Treaty negotiated by Mr. Titley, in conſequence of which, 'tis ſaid 12,000 Men will march by the End of the current Month.

Berlin, Feb. 19. The Aſtronomers of the Royal Academy here diſcover'd, on the 10th Inſtant, a new Comet in the Conſtellation of the Dragon, which was ſeen again on the 12th and 13th; on the 14th it appear'd in the great Bear, and on the 15th in the Lion. As yet it ſeems but ſmall, its Light faint, and without a Tail. His Majeſty cauſes prodigious Preparations to be made for an early Campaign, but his Deſigns are, as they always were, abſolutely impenetrable.

Turin, Feb. 6. The King of Sardinia, our Sovereign, has order'd every Company of Foot, and every Troop of Horſe and Dragoons in his Service, to be augmented, the Firſt with Fifteen, and the Second with Five Men each. His Majeſty's Equipage will be complete by the 23d, and by the beginning of March his Forces will begin to return into Savoy. We expect a conſiderable Body of Swiſs to join our Army, and when the Auſtrians, now marching thro' Tyrol, have join'd Count Traun, he will ſoon be too many for the Spaniards.

Venice, Feb. 10. There has been a deciſive Action between the Spaniards and the Auſtrians. The former thought to have ſurpriz'd the latter, but fail'd, and would then have retreated without fighting; but the Auſtrians ſeeing them exceſſively fatigu'd, preſs'd upon them very hard. Count Gages ſeeing an Engagement could not be avoided, on the 8th, about 21 of the Clock (ſo the Italians reckon) attack'd the Auſtrians, and broke their Cavalry. The Infantry however ſtood firm, eſpecially the Piedmonteſe, who ſuffer'd extremely, but without loſing an Inch of Ground. In the mean time the Auſtrian Cavalry rallied, and ſeeing what Execution the Spaniſh Artillery did on their Foot, Part diſmounted, attack'd, and broke the Troops who guarded it, while the reſt took the Spaniards in Flank, beat them, and put them to the Rout. They not only loſt the Field, but their Camp, Artillery, Baggage, &c. 3000 kill'd on the Spot, a Battalion taken Priſoners, 18 Field Officers left on the Place, and 20 taken. The Auſtrians loſt 4 Pieces of Cannon, as many Kettle Drums, and 5 Standards in the beginning of the Action; two General Officers made Priſoners, and about 1200 Men kill'd. Marſhal Traun had two Horſes kill'd under him, Count Apremont was wounded, the Generals Ciceri, Wallis, and Peyersberg mortally wounded; the latter perform'd Things altogether incredible, and by a happy Temerity chang'd the Fortune of the Day. The Spaniards have Lieutenant-General Magdenella, the Duke d'Arcos, Count Suza, and the Sieur de Caroajal deſperately wounded. Count de Gages was ſaid to have his Head cloven by a Huſſar, but that proves falſe.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

'Count de Saxe had a long Audience of the King on the 17th. He had on the 18th ſeveral Hours Conference with M. d'Argenſon; and it is thought he will command an Army in Chief in the Spring.

'Marſhal Noailles ſets out for Flanders the 4th of March.

'Don Theodore is landed again in Corſica, received by all the Inhabitants as their Sovereign, the Genoeſe have loſt their Subjects, and we all Marſhal Maillebois's Pains.'
